**Rikki is in her home-office. On the desk in front of her is a small black box.****

"Hi, mom!" says Rikki's daughter Abigail as she enter the room.

"Hi, Abi!" says Rikki.

"What's in the box?" says Abigail.

"The box...? Oh, of course! The box!" says Rikki. "Abi, you're 17 now and I wanna give you something..."

Rikki slowly open the black box. Inside is her old locket.

"Your locket..." says Abigail surprised. "I can't take that. It's yours!"

"Not anymore!" says Rikki with a smile. "You're the only mermaid left around here. It belongs with you."

Rikki hangs the locket around her daughter's neck.

"There! Fits perfect!" says Rikki.

"I can really have this?" says Abigail in a slow soft voice.

"Yeah, the locket's yours now, Abi." says Rikki. "Take good care of it."

"Sure, mom!" says Abigail.

"You look very cute!" says Rikki as a small happy tear fall down her face when she sees how good Abi look with the locket.

Abi open the locket. Inside is a picture of Rikki and Zane when they were in their 20's.

"Is this you and dad...?" says Abigail.

"Yeah! I think we're 21 in that photo." says Rikki.

"You were really sexy, mom!" says Abigail.

"I know!" says Rikki.

"Where are the other two lockets?" says Abi.

"As far as I know Cleo and Emma still have them. If they do they don't wear 'em anymore though." says Rikki.

"I promise that this locket is safe with me! I won't let anyone take it from me!" says Abi with a smile.

"I know that you'll keep it safe, sweetie!" says Rikki.

"Cool that you believe in me!" says Abi.

"Of course I believe in you. You have **my** brain. I know that you always do the right thing." says Rikki.
